

International Folk Dancing
Painting – Acrylics 101
Yoga, Pilates & Body Movement Awareness
Film Adaptations of Literary Text
Estate Planning
Significant Presidential Elections
A Small Sampling of our Classes

BROOKLYN LIFELONG LEARNING

Brooklyn Lifelong Learning (BLL), a 501(c)3 non-profit organization with classes located on the Brooklyn College campus, has been offering seniors opportunities for intellectual stimulation and social interaction in a relaxed environment since 1977. Enjoy unlimited, non-credit classes (no tests or homework!), lectures and access to concerts, cultural events, trips and more at a low, annual fee. The year-round program offers presentations not just during the academic year, but during the Winter and Summer breaks.

Find out More!

When: Wednesday, Nov 6, 2:00-4:00

Where: Sterling National Bank

110 7th Ave (corner of President Street) Lower level meeting room.

Visit: The BLL webpage at bll.brooklyn.cuny.edu or call the office at (718) 951-5647.

Brooklyn Lifelong Learning Office
2515 Glenwood Road #1AA

Learn for the Love of it!